

Q.) What's the visitation policy?

A.) Friends and family members are permitted and encouraged to visit you at Job Corps. Friends may visit anytime after training hours and before curfew hours in common areas and must be registered with the centers safety and security office. Parents are permitted to visit at anytime with advanced notice.